NEHGS Offers FREE Access to All Databases on AmericanAncestors.org from November 6–13

Fall Back into Research with Access to over 1.4 Billion Names from AmericanAncestors.org

Boston, MA—November 7, 2018—To assist family historians of all levels with a great reason to fall back into research, American Ancestors and New England Historic Genealogical Society (NEHGS) are granting FREE access to more than 1.4 billion names within its data-rich online records. For a limited time only—from Tuesday, November 6, 2018, through Tuesday, November 13, 2018—anyone can access the many research databases within the award-winning website of NEHGS by registering as a FREE Guest Member at AmericanAncestors.org/Free-Billion.

The website of NEHGS at AmericanAncestors.org contains some of the most important online databases for researching American ancestry, with more than 1.4 billion names in records covering 18 countries. Many databases include original content created by the experts and scholars at NEHGS, and all are open for eight days of FREE research to anyone who registers as a Guest Member. Access to all databases is free from November 6 at 12:00 AM EST through November 13 at 11:59 PM EST.

You Can Help Support American Stories, American Lives Today!

American Ancestors is dedicated to uncovering and telling the stories of the individuals who built our nation and help future generations understand how our past shapes our present. With your generous support, we provide original research into the lives of the people who built our nation, explore the intersections between history and genealogy, culture, and heritage, and illuminate the lives of the people who lived during the major events that shaped our nation. When we tell his story, her story, and their story, we tell the whole story.
